

CGC 1PS- 3.8 Aboriginal Population Patterns

Aboriginal peoples across Canada have very different ways of life. Ways in which they differ is by their

- *
- *
- *
- *
- *

People built their homes out of the resources that were available such as _____ and _____

Europeans forced the aboriginals to learn _____ or _____

They also tried to make them _____ and they were given chunks of land called _____

As European and other immigrants were settling in Canada, governments made _____ with the first nations peoples who lived on the land.

In return for their land the First Nations Peoples received

- *
- *
- *
- *

By the 1960's, many Aboriginal nations had begun to question whether the governments had fulfilled the treaties that their ancestors had signed.

They pointed to where the government had _____ reserve land or had allowed _____ or _____ to take place without _____ Aboriginal nations or _____ them in return.

They began to demand _____ from governments

Governments might not want to settle land claims because the _____, there are _____ on the land and settling the claims takes a great deal of _____ and _____

